English Version

Signs of Fame
Fernweh-Park
Oberkotzau

Do you dream of...

... foreign countries, cities, people?

Do you sometimes close your eyes and see dream landscapes in front of you, vibrant cities, impressive monuments, or hear the sea or the call of an exotic bird?

Are you in awe of creation on our blue planet Earth, whether at home or far away?

Maybe you feel like traveling right now? And maybe you travel in your mind when you see signs with place names from all over the world?

If so, and if you are in favor of international understanding and against racism - like we are - then you are surely curious about our Fernweh Park.

... over 500 top stars

Immortalized at the Fernweh Park

Oberkotzau, Germany

Idea & origin

Fernweh Park „Signs of Fame“ was launched on a special date: it was November 9, 1999, exactly ten years after the fall of the Berlin Wall.

Fernweh Park is a public symbol for freedom without borders and for international understanding.

The motive

We, the Fernweh Park Association, believe that all people in this world have the right to live together in peace! Regardless of skin color, gender, religion, or political worldview. We are against racism and xenophobia, against right-wing extremism, and for the preservation of the habitats on our blue planet earth.

The location

Fernweh Park is located at the „Summa Park“ in Oberkotzau, a small town near Hof in Upper Franconia.

There are sufficient parking and camper sites there, and the location offers many other leisure time activities, too. Thus, the visit of the Fernweh Park can well be turned into a day trip for families, clubs or even companies.

Visiting the Fernweh Park is free of charge. Guided tours for groups of ten or more can be booked on request at post@fernweh-park.de or k.beer@signsoffame.de.

The Fernweh Park association

The association „Fernweh-Park Signs of Fame e.V.“ has not only created the Fernweh Park. Members meet once a month to exchange ideas and to undertake activities together. Join us if you support our motives and ideas. All information about membership can be found on our website.
